Re American Friends of Anatevka, Inc.
Registration with the Attorney General's Charities Bureau

Dear Sir/Madam:

This office has become aware that American Friends of Anatevka, Inc. has been conducting charitable activities in New York State. Specifically, it has identified as a charitable corporation on its certificate of incorporation.

The Estates, Powers & Trusts Law requires registration of organizations that hold assets of any kind in New York for charitable purposes or conduct charitable activities in New York, and Article 7-A of the Executive Law requires registration of charitable organizations that solicit charitable contributions in New York.

Since it appears to be engaged in charitable activities in New York, Friends of Anatevka, Inc. is required to register with the Charities Bureau within twenty days of the date of this letter. Posted on our website – www.charitiesnys.com – is a portal for electronic registration. All registration information and documents must be submitted through the Bureau's electronic portal. That portal contains a checklist of required information and prompts to guide registrants through the registration process.

The statutes governing registration with the Charities Bureau, as well as forms and instructions for annual financial reporting, and other information drafted to assist nonprofits are also posted at www.charitiesnys.com.

If you believe that Friends of Anatevka, Inc. is not required to register with this office, you may determine whether it is exempt via the registration portal at www.charitiesnys.com.

Sincerely,
Stephenie Brathwaite
